JORDAN'S

JAPANESE WILL HOLD SERVICES FOR LATE RULER

Frank E. Scudder Suggests Attendance on Part of People as Courtesy

The Japanese churches of this city will unite in celebrating the memory of the late Emperor of Japan on Friday, September 13th, at 8 p. m. in the Nuuanu street church.

In relation to the above, Frank E. Scudder makes the following suggestion:

"Our Government has sent Secretary Knox to convey to Japan the sympathy of the American people. Would not this official courtesy be greatly emphasized by the unofficial courtesy which the people of Honolulu might show by attending the local memorial services? While the greater part of such services must necessarily be unintelligible to most Americans, there will be at least one tribute to the late Emperor by the Rev. O. H. Gulick, who was for many years a resident of Japan.

"It may be that some who are unable to attend might be glad to express their sympathy by means of a note addressed in care of Rev. Gulick."

FREE LUNCH CAUSED RIOT

A Japanese entered a newly established refreshment parlor on lower Hotel street, and having partaken of a varied and expensive assortment of viands, is alleged to have gathered up one more piece of food and walked out the door without as much as a "smile" for the proprietor.

Henry Godoy, who claims to have a financial interest in the place attempted to overhaul the unprofitable patron of his lunch room, with the result that in the melee that followed, the Japanese was somewhat worsted in the tussle.

A complaint was therefore lodged at police station against the Japanese. He figured in police court this morning but it required but a brief recital of his side of the story to convince prosecution and the magistrate, that the Japanese, and not the Filipino was the real aggressor.

The claim was made that while the defendant proprietor languished in durance vile, awaiting a hearing of his case, his business was going to the demonition bow wows. Godoy was discharged and beat a hasty retreat for the lunch room with a view of saving the pieces.

The Lehigh Valley Railroad management has issued orders to the effect that the company will not tolerate trainmen or engineers addicted to the use of intoxicating liquor.

FAMOUS CLASSIC DANCER APPEARS AT LIBERTY TONIGHT

MLLE. VERNA MERCEREAUX, PUPIL OF MAUD ALLEN, AND PREMIERE DANSEUSE

An act that will be received with much glee by the local theatre-goers arrived yesterday by the Honolulu and will be seen at the Liberty theatre tonight. The act is no other than Mlle. Verna Mercereaux, classic dancer, a pupil of the wonderful Maud Allen, who immortalized the "Salome" dance.

This beautiful young woman, who has just attained her majority, has appeared in St. Petersburg, where she was the danseuse of the Royal Opera Company, in Hammerstein's London production she was the principal dancer. Her debut in the United States was an instant success and she has been the rage of the West as well as the East, and the big dailies spared no ink in their laudatory comments to this clever woman.

Just how the local 400 will take to this dancer is a question that will no doubt be solved tonight when she makes her first appearance. She was much feted by the smart set of Seattle and San Francisco. Another act that is said to be well up on the list is the Kelo brothers, comedians and jugglers, with emphasis on the comedy, as their juggling is interspersed with high class comedy. The team, which is a very versatile one, as they sing, dance, talk, laugh and juggle, will devote most of their efforts towards making people laugh.

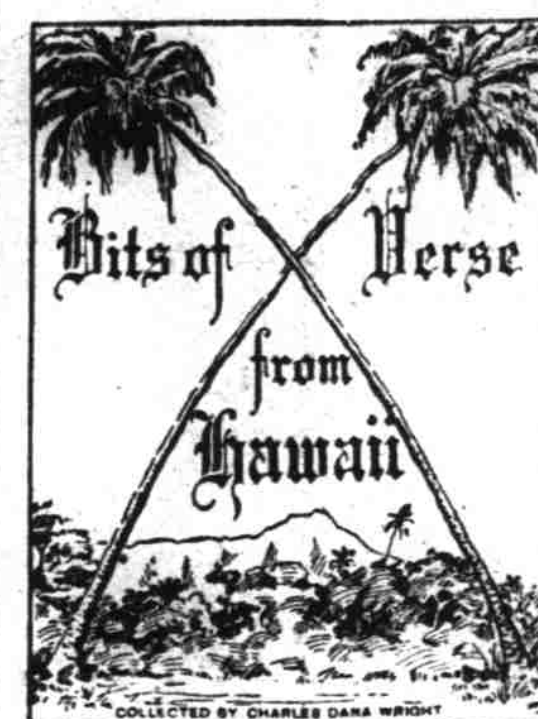

FERRIS HARTMAN CLOSES WITH "THE TOYMAKER"

Ferris Hartman has a penchant for the number thirteen. If there is a room numbered thirteen in the hotel where he is stopping, he immediately appropriates it for himself so he has no misgivings about starting on his Oriental tour tomorrow on the S. S. Nile.

Tonight will be the last performance, and "The Toymaker" is the farewell number. This play made a great hit with the kiddies last week and the grown-ups also joined in enthusiastic praise of its clever lines and song hits. Walter De Leon, the irresistible "Muggins" Davies, Ferris Hartman and all the other favorites will enact the chief roles this evening.

Many a man's good reputation has been fatally bitten by the political bug.

Secretary Fisher proposes to grant free permits for the development of water power for municipal purposes and for irrigation without rental charges. These permits will be granted under new regulations governing water power development on the public lands outside of the national forests, which were promulgated by Secretary Fisher before leaving for Hawaii.

Secretary Fisher will impose such conditions in these grants only as may be necessary to insure that the benefit which is conferred will be enjoyed by the citizens of municipalities and by the irrigators for whom it is intended rather than by the middlemen who may construct and operate the works. The new regulations also provide that permits may be granted to water power companies operating for profit, but in such cases provide for rental charges under a definite schedule.

BRECKONS READY TO CALL LAST MAHUKA SITE CASE

U. S. District Attorney Breckons announced yesterday that the third and final Mahuka site condemnation suit, brought by the Federal government to acquire a site for the proposed new Federal building, probably will be called on the first day of the October term of the U. S. District Court. That will be the second Monday in October.

The site involved in the coming suit is occupied by E. O. Hall & Son. The case may not be taken up promptly at that time, however, as a number of minor cases may require attention and may be disposed of before the Mahuka site matter is taken up.

R. A. LYMAN TO PLEAD GUILTY ON ONE CHARGE

HILO, September 11.—It has been arranged that Rufus A. Lyman, former secretary to the board of liquor commissioners, is to plead guilty to the charge of embezzlement against him in the Nishimoto case, one of the eight charges against him. It is probable that the other seven charges will be not-prossed, following his plea of guilty.
